[Announcer]: Have you seen this ad?
[Rendell]: "I want to raise the minimum wage both here in Pennsylvania and nationally and do it right now."

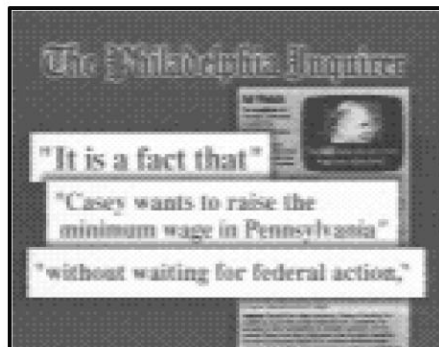

[Announcer]: Now look at what the Philadelphia Inquirer wrote in its Ad Watch: "Rendell has been accusing Casey of twisting his positions, but in this ad he twists his own.

It's a fact that Casey wants to raise the minimum wage in Pennsylvania without waiting for federal action. Ed Rendell does not. Suddenly Rendell appears to favor something he actually opposes." Can we trust anything Rendell says?
